

Polish Christmas Cards Workshop

Monday, November 6, 2017

6:30-8:30 p.m.

Instructor: Kasia Drake-Hames

Explore Polish folk art and learn to make unique handmade Christmas cards. Using the Wycinanki paper-cutting technique, participants will create four different greeting cards. Reusable patterns will be provided, so you can continue creating cards at home.

No previous art experience required.

Class fee includes all materials:

Adults $15, PHA Members $12, Children ages 6-12 $10

(children must be accompanied by a registered adult)

The instructor, Kasia Drake-Hames, has been teaching art classes to adults and youth in a variety of community-based settings for over 10 years. Kasia specializes in teaching fiber art techniques and paper crafts, particularly traditional Polish paper crafts, which she learned early in life from her grandmother, folk artist Ryszarda Klim.

Pre-registration is required, Call (414) 529-2140 or send check payable to Polish Center of Wisconsin to:
