

MUSHROOM MADNESS

at the Polish Center

Sunday, September 17, 2017

10 :00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m.

Learn to identify edible mushrooms in the wild and cultivate mushrooms at home. Speakers will discuss fungi related topics and experts will lead a foray into the woods outside of the Polish Center to identify mushrooms.

Watch cooking demonstrations and enjoy an assortment of foods made with mushrooms and available for purchase throughout the day.

Plus... the Great Hall will showcase businesses and organizations selling mushroom and nature-related items providing information on their activities.

Scheduled Presentations:

10:30 a.m. - "Identify Before You Fry: What You Don't Know Can Kill You"-
By Bernie Jendrzeczak (Learn about Mushrooms & Folklore.)

12:00 p.m.- Cooking Demonstration: Mushroom Pierogi- Anne Wal

1:30 p.m. - Mushroom Foray in the Polish Center woods and preview of future walking trails. (Sturdy shoes and long pants suggested)

Special: Don Nedobek's "Twelve Days of Christmas" Exhibit Opening and Meet-the-Artist Reception, in the Gallery

Mushroom Café- Treat yourself to lunch, for mushroom lovers and others

Polish Bazaar- Polish Pottery, local honey, and other nature-related products

Polanki Gift Shop- Variety of Polish Gifts

Polanki Library- Check out our mushroom-related resources

Admission is free

